16. The Offer is not being made, directly or indirectly, in or into Australia, Canada, Hong Kong, Japan, New Zealand, South Africa or Switzerland or in any other jurisdiction where such offer pursuant to legislation and regulations in such relevant jurisdiction would be prohibited by applicable law (the "Restricted Territories"). Accordingly, this acceptance form, the Offer Document, the Prospectus or any other documentation relating to the Offer are not being and should not be sent, mailed or otherwise distributed or forwarded in or into the Restricted Territories. Acceptances of the Offer and tenders of shares of Semcon made by a person located in a Restricted Territory, by any custodian, nominee, trustee agent, fiduciary or other intermediary acting on a non-discretionary basis for a principal giving instructions from within the Restricted Territories, or by the use of mail or any means, instrumentality or facility of the Restricted Territories, directly or indirectly, will not be accepted. Any acceptance form or other communication relating to the Offer that originates from, is postmarked from, bears a return address in, or otherwise appears to have been dispatched from, a Restricted Territory will not be accepted.
17. The Offer and the information contained in this acceptance form, the Offer Document, the Prospectus or any other documentation relating to the Offer are not being made and have not been approved by an "authorized person" for the purposes of section 21 of the UK Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the "FSMA"). Accordingly, the information contained in the aforementioned documents is not being distributed to, and must not be passed on to, the general public in the United Kingdom. The communication of said information is exempt from the restrictions on financial promotions under section 21 of the FSMA on the basis that it is a communication by or on behalf of a body corporate which relates to a transaction to acquire day to day control of the affairs of a body corporate; or to acquire 50 percent or more of the voting shares in a body corporate, within article 62 of the UK Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005.

The Offer is made for the issued and outstanding shares of Semcon, a company incorporated under Swedish law, and is subject to Swedish disclosure and procedural requirements, which are different from those of the United States. Shareholders in the United States are advised that the shares of Semcon are not listed on a U.S. securities exchange and that Semcon is not subject to the periodic reporting requirements of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "U.S. Exchange Act"), and is not required to, and does not, file any reports thereunder with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Offer is made in the United States pursuant to Section 14(e) and Regulation 14E of the U.S. Exchange Act, subject to exemptions provided by Rule 14d - 1(c) under the U.S. Exchange Act for a Tier I tender offer (the "Tier I Exemption") and Rule 802 under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, and otherwise in accordance with the disclosure and procedural requirements of Swedish law, including with respect to withdrawal rights, the Offer timetable, settlement procedures, waiver of conditions and timing of payments, which are different from those applicable under U.S. domestic tender offer procedures and law. Holders of the shares of Semcon domiciled in the United States are encouraged to consult with their own advisors regarding the Offer.
18. As permitted under the Tier I Exemption, the settlement of the Offer is based on the applicable Swedish law provisions, which differ from the settlement procedures customary in the United States, particularly as regards to the time when payment of the consideration is rendered.
19. Neither the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission nor any U.S. state securities commission or regulatory authority has approved or disapproved the Offer, passed upon the fairness or merits of the Offer or determined whether the Offer Document is accurate or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States.
20. For further information please refer to the section "Offer restrictions" in the Offer Document.
